How I See My Situation...

Tell Exactly How You Feel.

God, I feel like I am hopeless without strength to take another step forward...

Life seems to move in slow motion most of the time...

Others around me appear to be living lives with some kind of meaning and purpose...

I Believe...

Things are never going to get better...

I'm being punished for some reason because of the way I feel...

Nothing “good” can ever come out of this difficult situation or season...

How God Sees

My Situation...

God, I choose this day to believe...

You see me as Your beloved child, unconditionally loved, redeemed, given a new and “Living Hope” every day through Your Son, Jesus.

You have uniquely created me with extreme value for Your glory and purposes.

You will work out all things together for my ultimate good and for Your ultimate glory.

You will use the difficult challenges, situations, seasons, and circumstances of my life to draw me nearer to You and to point others to You on their journey.
